Helpful Tip

Outstanding bills

card or loan accounts

■ Account numbers and/or recent statements

Request death certificates from the funeral director or from your state's Office of Vital Records. Simple estates may require only 5-10 copies, while a complex estate may require 10-15 or more.

■ Flexible spending plan

Commonly Used Terms

A better understanding of the terminology used by funeral directors, financial advisors, attorneys and CPAs will help make the process easier and help you communicate your thoughts and concerns throughout this process.

Below are commonly used estate planning terms.

Administrator

A person who has been granted legal rights by the court to manage an estate for the decedent who did not leave a Will or formal instructions.

Asset

Anything of value owned by an individual, such as stocks, bonds, monies, property and household goods.

Beneficiary

The recipient of funds, property or other benefits from a Last Will, Trust or registered plan.

Creditor

A creditor of an estate is anyone the decedent still owed money to at the time of death (i.e. anyone entitled to collect an unpaid debit of the decedent from the proceeds of the estate).

Decedent's Assets (or Capital Property)

Any depreciable property of the taxpayer, and if the property were disposed of, any gain or loss that would be a capital gain or capital loss, as the case may be, of the taxpayer.

Decedent

The individual who has passed.

Estate

All of the assets and liabilities of an individual at the time of death

Executor

A person or trust company named to administer a decedent's person's estate. Executor can be known as executor, executrix, and administrator.

Heir

One who is entitled to receive or has received an inheritance from a parent or predecessor when there is no Last Will.

Last Will

A document containing directions for the disposition of a person's property after his or her death.

Letter of Administration

Issued by the court when a person dies intestate (without a Last Will), appointing the administrator(s) of an estate.

Letter of Testamentary

A document from the court confirming that the Will is recognized as valid and is the Last Will and Testament of the deceased person.

Liability

Any debt or obligation owed to creditors of the deceased person.

Payable on Death

Payable on death (POD) is an arrangement between a bank or credit union and a client that designates beneficiaries to receive client's assets. The immediate transfer of assets is triggered by the death of the client.

Probate of a Will

Probate is the procedure by which a non-notarial Will is approved by the Court as the valid and Last Will of a decedent testator.

Proof of Death

An original, notarized or certified true copy of a death or burial certificate, funeral home certificate, Act of Death, or Certificate of Death.

Small Estate Affidavit

An affidavit that allows you to fast track the resolution of an estate through probate court. It's a good way to help you resolve final estate matters for a deceased person who died without a Will and with a "small estate".

Trust

Legal agreement where assets are managed by an individual or organization after someone's passing; a living trust that is created prior to someones death that can remain private and not known to others.

Trustee

The individual or trust company that holds legal responsibility to manage the trust property and is under an absolute obligation to act solely for the benefit of the trust's beneficiaries.

Will

Legal document in which a person states who will receive their possessions upon their death.
